

Playgroup Resource Package

Ears & Hearing Health

Facilitator Training

These resources provide opportunities to brush up on your knowledge of middle ear disease, prevention strategies and impacts on development.

This package has been co-developed by

We would like to acknowledge the staff from these organisations, and the families that they work with, for their contributions to this resource.