Perinatal and Infant Mental Health state-wide service system overview (Preconception until 3 years)

Public health, primary, secondary and tertiary perinatal and infant mental health service providers, including private practitioners, hospital and health services (Queensland Health), government departments and non-government organisations including consumer-led and peer support services.

---

Perinatal mental health service
- Perinatal
  - Consultation liaison services (Preconception until 24 months postpartum)
  - Ambulatory community care services (Preconception until 24 months postpartum)
- Infant
  - Consultation liaison services (Conception until 3 years)
  - Ambulatory community care services (Conception until 3 years)

Inpatient mental health service
- Perinatal
  - Mother – infant beds (Third trimester until 3 years)
  - Consultation liaison services (Preconception until 24 months postpartum)
  - Day programs (Birth until 3 years depending on program environment)
- Infant
  - Inpatient admissions (Mobile infants until 3 years)
  - Consultation liaison services (Birth until 3 years)

---

Continuum of care across the perinatal and infant mental health service system

Advocacy | Education, training, supervision and staff support | Mental health promotion and prevention | Evaluation & research

Children’s Health Queensland Hospital and Health Service
Child and Youth Mental Health Service

Queensland Centre for Perinatal and Infant Mental Health

Developed by the Queensland Centre for Perinatal and Infant Mental Health (QCPIMH), Children’s Health Queensland Hospital and Health Service, with the support of the National Perinatal Depression Initiative.

© Queensland Government February 2017