

Queensland Centre for Perinatal and Infant Mental Health

Communication Framework

Queensland Centre for Perinatal and Infant Mental Health will grow knowledge of, build skills in, and change attitudes about perinatal and infant mental health by communicating interactively and building relationships with key stakeholders and broader audiences.

Developed by the Queensland Centre for Perinatal and Infant Mental Health (QCPIMH), Children's Health Queensland Hospital and Health Service, with the support of the National Perinatal Depression Initiative.
© Queensland Government February 2017

